Request for Nominations 2010

The Raymond and Beverly Sackler International Prize in Biophysics is a prize that has been established through the generosity of Dr. Raymond and Mrs. Beverly Sackler. The prize is intended to encourage dedication to science, originality and excellence, by awarding outstanding international scientists of age 45 or younger. To be eligible, the nominee's birth date must be after January 1, 1965. This year an amount of $50,000 will be presented.

The research field for the 2010 Raymond and Beverly Sackler International Prize in Biophysics is: Physics of Biomolecular Interactions.

We would greatly appreciate receiving your recommendation.

Thank you for your assistance in this important matter.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. David Andelman
School of Physics and Astronomy
Sackler Faculty of Exact Sciences

Prof. Michael Kozlov
Dept. of Physiology & Pharmacology
Sackler Faculty of Medicine

Call for Nominations for the Year 2010

The Raymond and Beverly Sackler International Prize in Biophysics is a prize that has been established through the generosity of Dr. Raymond and Mrs. Beverly Sackler. This year an amount of $50,000 will be presented. The prize will be awarded to the recipient(s), in person, at Tel Aviv University.

The prize is intended to encourage dedication to science, originality and excellence by rewarding outstanding scientists of age 45 years or younger. To be eligible the nominee's birth date must be after January 1, 1965.

The Sackler Prize is administered by Tel Aviv University through an advisory committee comprised of the President and Rector of TAU as ex-officio members and others who have been selected ad personam by the President and the Rector.

The field for the Prize of the Year 2010 is: Physics of Biomolecular Interactions.

The prize coordinators are Professors David Andelman and Michael Kozlov.

A selection panel composed of outstanding scientists in the field will be appointed, reflecting an international geographical diversity. (At least one panel member, however, has to be a Professor at TAU.)

Nominations for the Sackler Prize can be made by individuals belonging to one or more of the following categories:

- Members of the TAU Senate and Members of the Israel Academy of Sciences and Humanities.
- Presidents, Rectors, Vice-Presidents, Provosts, Deans in the Natural Sciences, Medicine & Engineering and Professors of Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Medicine and Engineering in recognized institutions of higher learning and research in Israel and abroad.
- Sackler Prize Laureates.

All nominations should be submitted by email and/or airmail before January 15, 2010 to the following address:

Ms. Nina Elazar-Wolff, The Sackler Prize administrator, Raymond and Beverly Sackler School of Physics and Astronomy, Tel Aviv University, Ramat Aviv 69978, Tel Aviv, Israel.
Email: sbiophys@post.tau.ac.il

We suggest that the support of each nomination includes at least two letters of recommendation, the nominee's C.V., list of publications, a brief research summary, a link to the nominee website.

Members of TAU faculty are not eligible to receive the prize. Self-nominations cannot be accepted.
