Hi Sua and Randy

Please see the memo from the School of Music regarding changes to their Embedded Literacies, which the college supports. One small point of clarification; you'll see that that Music Ed majors will be completing multiple required courses to meet their embedded literacies. The reason is that licensure is required for the Music Education program so having these additional ELs would be beneficial in the even the School needs to demonstrate competencies from ODE.

Best

Dear Dean Martin,

The School of Music will be making the following adjustments to the Embedded Literacies components across all of our degree programs effective August 26, 2025. The following courses will carry an embedded literacy designation:

MUSIC 2470 Introduction to Music Education	advanced writing
MUSIC 3364 Musical Citizenship	advanced writing, data analysis
MUSIC 2249 European Music Traditions	technology
MUSIC 3340 Global Music Traditions	technology
MUSIC 4577 Teaching Music in Secondary Schools	advanced writing, data analysis

NOTE: 3364, 2249, and 3340 are required of all majors, so ALL EL areas are addressed. MUSIC 2470 and 45777 are required for music education majors only.

We have removed embedded literacies from our Theory (Music 2221 and 2222) and Aural Training (Music 2224 and 2225) sequence of courses as the curricula in these courses is under review and redesign with the Drake Center.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns. Updated curriculum sheets are attached.

Thank you,
