Associate Professor

To whom it may concern,

I am writing on behalf of the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures to request a change to a requirement in our Teaching of East Asian Languages and Literatures Certificate program. For the requirement for one workshop attendance (under "Practicum"), we would like to change the type of workshop from "DEI Pedagogy Workshop" to "teaching-related workshop." Given the sunseting of the university's ODI and the state's legislative barring of DEI, we feel that it is important to make the change to ensure the continuity of this certificate program. Specifically, this is the change we have made to the advising sheet:

Old worksheet:

Required: Attend one DEALL DEI Pedagogy Workshop or one DEI Pedagogy-related event/workshop hosted by the Michael V. Drake Institute for Teaching and Learning or other units on campus.

New worksheet:

Required: Attend one teaching-related workshop hosted by DEALL, Michael V. Drake Institute for Teaching and Learning, or other units on campus.

If you need further information, please kindly let me know. We greatly appreciate your support of our work with this certificate program.

Sincerely,
