

The Ohio State University at Mansfield

Norman Jones, Dean and Director

Situated on a beautifully wooded 640-acre campus located in the rolling hills of North Central Ohio, The Ohio State University at Mansfield serves as a gateway to hundreds of Ohio State degrees—including engineering, environmental studies, and a wide range of health-related majors in addition to the majors offered entirely at Mansfield (listed below).

Conveniently located within an hour's drive of Columbus, Cleveland and Akron, Mansfield has offered Ohio State courses since 1958. The Mansfield campus now provides on-campus and off-campus student housing for more than 500 students, and its award-winning faculty prepare students for success in a wide variety of careers. Outside of class, students at Mansfield can choose from intramural sports, more than 50 clubs and organizations, theatre, art and other exciting activities.

The Mansfield area boasts outstanding cultural and recreational facilities, including a 14-screen movie theater; a 17-mile biking and walking trail; Snow Trails ski resort; Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course; Mohican State Forest's 4700 acres; the botanical gardens of Kingwood Center; author Louis Bromfield's Malabar Farm; the Mansfield Art Center; the historic Carousel district; the Renaissance Theater; the Mansfield Symphony; and a wealth of shops and restaurants.

Fast Facts

Number of students (Au19): 1078

First-year retention (Au19): 70%

Mansfield as first choice (Au 19): 64%

Number of tenure-track faculty (Au 19): 30

Degrees offered:

- Associate of Arts
- Bachelor's: Business Management, Child and Youth Studies, Criminology, Education (Early Childhood and Middle Childhood degrees), Engineering Technology, English, History, Psychology (BA and BS), Sociology, Social Work

Co-located institution: North Central State College

President of co-located institution: Dr. Dorey Diab

Advisory Board Members

- Kelly Blay
- Renda Cline
- Frederick Cooke
- R. David Daniels
- Nicholas Gesouras
- James A. Goudy II
- Charla Irvin
- Teresa Purtiman
- Zoi Romanchuk
- Antwan Woods

The student body at OSU Mansfield includes students at all ranks, with 76% being in their first two years. Eligible students receive the Presidents Affordability Grant, Buckeye Affordability Grant, and/or OSU Mansfield campus scholarship and financial aid. All incoming freshman receive an iPad as part of the university's Digital Flagship initiative.