From: Terry L. Gustafson, Special Assistant to the Executive Dean for Semester Conversion
Re:  Arts and Sciences Program Proposals from the Arts and Humanities Division

Arts and Sciences is pleased to submit the following programs from the Arts and Humanities Division to the Office of Academic Affairs for conversion from quarters to semesters. The programs have been approved by the faculty members and chair of the originating unit, and reviewed and approved by the divisional advisory panel, a subcommittee of the ASC Committee on Curriculum and Instruction (CCI), and the full CCI. The vote for approval of all programs at the full CCI was unanimous.

Program Name	Academic Plan Code	Conversion Designation	CCI Approval	Last Revision
Arabic BA	ARABIC-BA	Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006
Hebrew BA	HEBREW-BA	Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006
Islamic Studies BA		Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006
Arabic Minor	ARABIC-MN	Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006
Hebrew Minor	HEBREW-MN	Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006
Persian Minor	PERSIAN-MN	Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006
Turkish Minor	TURKISH-MN	Re-envisioned	7/14/2011	Prior to 2006

Arts and Sciences General Education (GE) Program: The GE program for untagged B.A. and B.S. degrees in Arts and Sciences was approved by the Council on Academic Affairs on May 26, 2010, after receiving approval from the Arts and Sciences Faculty Senate. All the programs presented here follow the approved GE program.

College of Arts and Sciences Transition Policy: The College of Arts and Sciences is committed to the principles outlined in the university's Pledge to Undergraduate Students. Each unit has a plan on how best to assist its majors and minors through the transition. And the Arts and Sciences Academic Advising Services will advise students on how to transition their GE program. Dual advising is the existing process used in Arts and Sciences and will continue under semesters.

Additional Notes on NELC Programs:

Note that the Islamic Studies major is not a new program. The program code was not in curriculum.osu.edu, so it was entered as new.

During the review of the NELC programs the CCI had the following comments on the programs. In order to expedite the review at CAA, we are forwarding the programs without making the final revisions. The final changes will incorporate these modifications, along with any additional changes recommended by CAA.

1) Arabic BA (return)

a) Reviewers: Masters, Stafford

i) The advising sheet, as in the proposal, may be confusing for the students. The categories are not consistently named (that is, overview of major in other parts of proposal uses other category names) and the sample schedule may discourage students to enroll in other courses.

ii) 4998 is listed twice in the course list on page 4.

iii) The thesis courses, because they cannot count in the major, should be removed from the advising sheet and the curricular map.

iv) Advising sheet and curricular map should specify whether the courses are NELC or Arabic (for all courses). Some courses (4999 and 4998) have no listing. Does that mean they can be taken in any listing?

b) Motion: Stafford, Masters, unanimously approved (items in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

2) Arabic Minor (return)

a) Reviewers: Stafford, Masters

i) "Fill-in" semester advising sheet: Add that 2241, 2701, and 2702 can only be taken if not taken as prereqs.

ii) Section 12: includes information that is not relevant to the minor-information on renumbering courses.

b) Motion: Stafford, Masters, unanimously approved (items in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

3) Hebrew BA (return)

a) Reviewers: Daniels, Vaessin

i) Program requirements, point 11: uses sections A, B, C, and E- D is missing.

ii) Language requirements on the program requirements are not indicated as being taught in the language but are in other places in the document.

iii) The thesis courses, because they cannot count in the major, should be removed from the advising sheet and the curricular map.

iv) List of program requirements and the advising sheet do not match. 2105 and 4101 have the wrong number of credit hours. Should be listed as 4 credit hours on the advising sheet.

v) 2105, formerly 205, is converting from 5 quarter hours to 4 semester hours--that is, if the information under pt 11 and the course list are correct (indeed, the advising sheet says that 2105 will be 3 credits). Normally a 5-cr quarter course would convert to a 3-cr semester course. Students who take the course under quarters will be short 1 credit hour. A statement that the course will convert to 4 credit hours for these students should be included.

vi) Sample schedule on advising sheet may discourage students to enroll in other courses.

b) Motion: Vaessin, Stafford, unanimously approved (items in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

4) Hebrew Minor (return)

a) Reviewers: Daniels, Vaessin

i) Lack of consistency: Various headers for same category: "Translated Hebrew Literature/Culture," "Literature in Translation," and "Translated Hebrew Literature."

ii) Language requirements on the program requirements are not indicated as being taught in the language but are in other places in the document.

iii) 2105, formerly 205, is converting from 5 quarter hours to 4 semester hours. Normally a 5-cr quarter course would convert to a 3-cr semester course. Students who take the course under quarters will be short 1 credit hour. A statement that the course will convert to 4 credit hours for these students should be included.

b) Motion: Daniels, Vaessin, unanimously approved (items in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

5) Islamic Studies BA (return)

a) Reviewers: Stafford, Masters

i) On the semester advising sheet, specify that a total of 8 hours of language courses are required.

ii) Advising sheet should remove the Social Science GE section.

iii) The "Religious Studies" category name is not consistent on the advising sheet and the program requirements (where it is called "Theory and Methods in the Study of Religion").

iv) 2nd page of the advising sheet identifies the listing for all courses except for a few including 4998 and 4999. Is this to allow them to take from any NELC area?

v) Sample schedule on advising sheet may discourage students to enroll in other courses.

b) Motion: Masters, Stafford, unanimously approved (items in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

6) Persian Minor (return)

a) Reviewers: Masters, Stafford

i) Letter from chair is missing.

ii) On the ASC version of the advising sheet: 2241 is listed as fulfilling the Literature and Culture category, but this course is not listed as fulfilling Literature and Culture on the department advising sheet or in part 11, C.

iii) Add a note on the department advising sheet and to part 11, C: those courses taken as a prerequisite cannot count in the minor.

b) Motion: Stafford, Masters, unanimously approved (items in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

7) Turkish Minor (return)

a) Reviewers: Masters, Stafford

i) Categories are not consistently labeled: ex. the translation category.

b) Motion: Stafford, Masters, unanimously approved (item in bold will be transmitted to CAA)

Status: PENDING

Program Learning Goals

Note: these are required for all undergraduate degree programs and majors now, and will be required for all graduate and professional degree programs in 2012. Nonetheless, all programs are encouraged to complete these now.

Program Learning Goals •

Assessment

Assessment plan includes student learning goals, how those goals are evaluated, and how the information collected is used to improve student learning. An assessment plan is required for undergraduate majors and degrees. Graduate and professional degree programs are encouraged to complete this now, but will not be required to do so until 2012.

Is this a degree program (undergraduate, graduate, or professional) or major proposal? No

Program Specializations/Sub-Plans

If you do not specify a program specialization/sub-plan it will be assumed you are submitting this program for all program specializations/sub-plans.

Pre-Major

Does this Program have a Pre-Major? No

Lawrence Krissek, Professor of Earth Sciences
Faculty Chair, CCI
College of Arts and Sciences

Dear Larry,

The Department of Near Eastern Languages and Cultures has completed and submitted their proposals for semester versions of their undergraduate major and minor programs:

BA in Arabic
BA in Hebrew
BA in Islamic Studies
Minor in Arabic
Minor in Hebrew
Minor in Turkish
Minor in Persian

The Arts and Humanities Disciplinary Advisory Panel for Curriculum within the College of Arts and Sciences reviewed, approved with contingencies, and deferred ultimate approval of all NECL undergrad programs to CCI, during its June 8, 2011 meeting. Please note that the BA in Arabic, BA in Hebrew, and BA in Islamic Studies programs have an assessment plan on file with OAA, verified October 15, 2010. All programs are converting with re-envisioned status due to changes in pre-requisite requirements and variations in programmatic offerings.

Transition Plan: The programs have identified either a bridge course or individualized instruction for 1101-1103 course work for the pre-requisite requirements for each program. These plans are outlined in the program proposal, and each program varies slightly depending on the number of students enrolled. In addition, the department has identified how very few students will be affected in the Hebrew program and Islamic Studies program, and it has made individualized provision for these six or eight students. Students enrolled in the Arabic program will be aided by two additional GA hires for the 2012-2013 academic year. Detailed scenarios for students entering each major at different years are in each major program plan.

Most specifically, I have highlighted the important changes for each program below:

BA in Arabic: The BA in Arabic was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The undergraduate BA is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 55 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 36 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The BA in Arabic is being brought in line with similar BA programs within the languages and is adding a pre-requisite culture course chosen from among three courses: Arabic 2241 Culture of the Contemporary Arab World, Arabic 2701 Classical and Medieval Arabic Literature in Translation, or Arabic 2702 Arabic Lit in Translation to its pre-requisite requirement of 1101-1103. The requirement for the major program under quarters was 11 courses and under semesters will be 11 courses. The program has changed the grammar sequence from three 5 credit quarter hour courses to three 4 credit semester hour courses so that their students will continue to be competitive for graduate programs around the country. This change in the grammar sequence along with the added culture pre-requisite course is the major reason for the re-envisioned status. The rest of the program remains the same.

BA in Hebrew: The BA in Hebrew was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The undergraduate BA is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 45 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 32 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The BA in Hebrew is being brought in line with similar BA programs within the languages and is adding a pre-requisite culture course chosen from among three courses: Hebrew 2241 Culture of Contemporary Israel, Hebrew 2245 Israeli Film and Society, or Hebrew 2216 Medieval Jewish Experience to its pre-requisite requirement of 1101-1103. The requirements for the major program under quarters were 9 courses and under semesters will be 10 courses. The program has changed the grammar sequence from two 5 credit quarter hour courses to two 4 credit semester hour courses, and under semesters will require that an additional three courses be taken in the language using only Hebrew texts. This requirement ensures that their students will continue to be competitive for graduate programs around the country. This change in the grammar sequence, the added culture pre-requisite course, and the additional requirement of three courses that use Hebrew texts are the major reasons for the re-envisioned status. The rest of the program remains the same.

BA in Islamic Studies: The BA in Islamic Studies was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The undergraduate BA is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 60 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 32 credit hours with only 12 credit hours of pre-requisites. Please note that the BA in Islamic Studies is a long-time major administered within the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Cultures, however within PACER it was not found under NELC, and the department had to list it as new. The categories of the program remain the same with the addition of a Religious Studies categorical requirement of 3 credit hours. They have reduced the number of required courses in the major by two, bringing it into line with the other two programs within the department. This change in the number of courses required to complete the major and the added religious studies categorical requirement are the major reasons for the re-envisioned status. The rest of the program remains the same.

Minor in Arabic: The Minor in Arabic was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The minor is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 20 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 13 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The Minor in Arabic, along with all minors from NELC, is being brought into line with similar programs within the languages and is adding a pre-requisite culture course chosen from among three courses: Arabic 2241 Culture of the Contemporary Arab World, Arabic 2701 Classical and Medieval Arabic Literature in Translation, or Arabic 2702 Arabic Lit in Translation to its pre-requisite requirement of 1101-1103. The requirement for the minor program under quarters was 4 courses and under semesters will be 4 courses. However, the department has provided choices for students who wish to either take the traditional Modern Standard Arabic sequence, or the Colloquial Arabic sequence, which will complement the International Studies BA minor requirements.

Minor in Hebrew: The Minor in Hebrew was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The minor is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 20 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 14 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The Minor in Hebrew, along with all minors from NELC, is being brought in line with similar programs within the languages and is adding a pre-requisite culture course chosen from among three courses: Hebrew 2241 Culture of Contemporary Israel, Hebrew 2245 Israeli Film and Society, or Hebrew 2216 Medieval Jewish Experience to its pre-requisite requirement of 1101-1103. The requirement for the minor program under quarters was 4 courses and under semesters will be 4 courses.

Minor in Persian: The Minor in Persian was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The minor is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 20 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 15 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The Minor in Persian, along with all minors from NELC, is being brought into line with similar programs within the languages and is adding a pre-requisite culture course chosen from among three courses: Persian 2241 Persian Culture, Persian 2301 Persian Mythology and Folklore, or Persian 2701 Persian Literature in Translation to its pre-requisite requirement of 1101-1103. The requirement for the minor program under quarters was 4 courses and under semesters will be 4 courses.

Minor in Turkish: The Minor in Turkish was last revised and approved by CAA previous to 2006 as there are no ASC or CAA electronic records on file. The minor is changing with re-envisioned status. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 20 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 15 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The Minor in Turkish, along with all minors from NELC, is being brought into line with similar programs within the languages and is adding a pre-requisite culture course Turkish 2241 Turkish Culture to its pre-requisite requirement of 1101-1103. The department has also added a new 3000-level syntax course, and formalized specific requirements for the semester version of its minor program. The requirement for the minor program under quarters was 4 courses and under semesters will be 4 courses.

We are sending these undergraduate programs forward for review and approval in the next stage of curricular review at the Arts and Sciences Committee on Curriculum and Instruction. The courses that are specific to all of the programs are listed under multiple Book 3 Listings. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to call or email me at 292-5727 or williams.1415@osu.edu.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

10. Program learning goals: N/A

11. Semester course requirements:

A) Prerequisites (15 credits)

- Hebrew 1101: Elementary Hebrew I (4)
- Hebrew 1102: Elementary Hebrew II (4)
- Hebrew 1103: Intermediate Hebrew I (4)
- One of:
 - Hebrew 2216 The Medieval Jewish Experience. (3)
 - Hebrew 2241 Culture of Contemporary Israel (3)
 - Hebrew 2245 Israeli Film & Society (3)

B) Language Requirement (11 credits)

- Hebrew 2105: Modern Hebrew Grammar (4)
- Hebrew 4101: Review of Grammar and Composition (4)
- One of:
 - Hebrew 4102: Hebrew and the Media (3)
 - Hebrew 4601: Modern Hebrew Short Story (3)
 - Hebrew 4602: Modern Hebrew Poetry (3)

C) Translated Hebrew Literature/Culture (3 credits): one of the following:

- Hebrew 2700: Biblical and Post-Biblical Hebrew Literature in Translation (3)
- Hebrew 2701: Medieval Hebrew Literature in Translation (3)
- Hebrew 2702: Modern Hebrew Literature in Translation (3)

12. Rationale for proposed program changes:

Under the quarter system, the Hebrew minor requires 20 credits (four courses), with foundational courses being the prerequisite language courses (Hebrew 101-104). Students are required to take a grammar course at the 200 level, and three Hebrew courses at the 400 level or above for a total of four courses.

We have maintained this four course requirement for the minor under semesters, but have added additional structure inside both majors and minors:

1. Made the numbering of the courses more consistent and indicative of a progression,
2. Made the numbers more reflective of the degrees of difficulty of courses,
3. Made the numbers more reflective of topics,
4. Verified that the students take at least three of these courses or 3/4 of their minor requirements in courses for which the language of instruction is Hebrew, or assigned texts are in Hebrew. Thus, no allied courses are included in the minor program.
5. Have required a pre-requisite of either Hebrew 2241 Culture of Contemporary Israel, or 2245, Israeli Film and Society, or 2216, The Medieval Jewish Experience, in addition to Hebrew 1101-1103 in order to give prospective students exposure to the cultural aspects of the minor before they commit to the program.

In the quarter version of the Hebrew minor students take four courses. In the semester version four will also be required (although an additional pre-requisite course is required).

13.-17. See PACER.

18. Rationale for change in credit hours:

The Hebrew Minor requirements are now more structured. Instead of the multiple electives, specific courses are selected. This formalization will insure better achievement of learning goals as well as make course planning easier for both students and the department. All of our language minors now will be required to complete $\frac{3}{4}$ of their courses in the minor language. Flexibility is maintained by allowing students to some extent to select courses that cover specific media or genres (e.g. film, poetry, prose) or historical periods (classical, medieval, or modern) in which they are particularly interested.

TRANSITION POLICY

19. Policy statement from the chair of the department

In the quarter version of the Hebrew minor students take four courses. In the semester version four will also be required (although an additional pre-requisite course is required). The transition will require no additional coursework for any students, regardless of their statuses at the time of transition. Because a language minor depends on a progression of courses in the language, we will first establish that all of those courses taught in Hebrew will be available in a timely fashion.

In academic year 2011-2012, Hebrew will be started only in the fall quarter as we have just completed a departmental outside review in spring 2010 strongly recommending starting NELC languages only once a year. Students thus can move seamlessly into the new semester 1103 in fall 2012 to complete their language GE (see "Transition Plan for Foreign Language Courses" below, bottom row). This course will give them a slight review, about 1/3 of what they studied in 103, which tends to be useful anyway after a summer off.

This year we are offering a final spring Hebrew 101 that will be able to be finished up by next spring, 2012, with Hebrew 104, thus allowing students to complete their language GE before the beginning of semesters. Any of those students wishing to continue on with a major or minor, estimated at between one and 4 students, can transition into the Hebrew minor with Hebrew 2105 in spring 2013, the second semester of their second year of language. To keep their language skills, these students can take 4101 or 4102 with extra help if they are particularly strong in Hebrew, take an individualized study course if they wish, or be assured of a strong choice of Hebrew in translation courses in fall 2012 so that they can complete the minor on time.

If they have taken through 205 by the beginning of semesters in fall 2012, they will go into any of the 4000-level Hebrew language courses. At that point, students will have completed their basic sequence and will be able to proceed with the semester system without other adjustments. *In the case of the Hebrew minor, these two 4000 level courses will complete the language requirements. We do not anticipate any problems with credit hours for either the major or minor, but will be prepared to solve those on an individual basis should unusual circumstances arise.

Semester Transition Plan for Foreign Language Courses: (submitted separately with letter from program-offering unit)

We have requested two temporary hires at either the advanced undergraduate or GA levels to help our majors and minors students who will be transitioning through the process and will also prepare a special transition sheet to help them keep track of their step-by-step progress.
