To: W. Randy Smith, Vice Provost – Council on Academic Affairs

From: Aaron Bagent, Curriculum Specialist

RE: Information Item: MS in Consumer Sciences, Fashion and Retail Studies and Hospitality Management specializations, Department of Human Sciences

Please find proposal materials included for an informational item regarding the MS in Consumer Sciences, Fashion and Retail Studies and Hospitality Management specializations. This is part of a larger proposal to revise the MS which is currently with GS/CAA. The Graduate School asked EHE to submit the deactivation of the HRE code as a separate, informational item directly to CAA. The materials include the original letter of support from Interim Associate Dean Tasha Snyder and the original letter from the Graduate Committee for Consumer Sciences Chair Ann Paulins.

This was presented and approved at the College of Education and Human Ecology Curriculum Committee meeting on September 14th, 2023. If there are any questions, please contact me at bagent.14@osu.edu.

Dear Vice Provost Smith,

I am writing on behalf of the College of Education and Human Ecology's (EHE) Office of Academic Affairs. EHE supports the recent curricular change that was approved by the EHE Curriculum Committee on September 14, 2023:

- Program revision to the Consumer Sciences MS program.

The changes to the two specializations areas (Fashion and Retail Studies, Hospitality Management) in the Consumer Sciences MS program allow for a more tailored program than currently exists with the umbrella curriculum for both. These revisions should not result in any significant changes in the credit hours generated by the Consumer Sciences MS program.

Sincerely yours,

Anastasia R. Snyder, PhD
Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs

To the Graduate Curriculum Committee:

The Consumer Sciences faculty are seeking approval to revise the Master of Science in Consumer Sciences, Hospitality and Retail Management specialization curriculum. Currently, masters students in this program apply to one of three specializations: Family Resource Management (FMR), Fashion and Retail Studies (FRS), or Hospitality Management (HMT). For students who select FRS or HMT they currently follow a curriculum that serves as an umbrella for both specializations in Hospitality and Retail Management (HRE). This proposal aims to remove the umbrella curriculum and HRE code to provide a more tailored academic experience within the FRS and HMT specializations.

Proposed adjustments to the elective options within the Specialization Requirements for FRS and HMT reflect said tailored experience. Proposed adjustments to the Major and Supporting Course Elective Requirements reflect the closely aligned nature of these two fields of study.

Distinguishing between the two tracks (Thesis vs. Non-thesis) is important to prepare students for their academic and professional goals beyond graduation.

All necessary documents are attached. This proposal was approved by our faculty in Consumer Sciences in August 2023.

Thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me at paulins.1@osu.edu.

Sincerely,

V. Ann Paulins, Ph.D.

Clinical Associate Professor, Fashion and Retail Studies

Chair, Graduate Committee for Consumer Sciences
