Dear Randy:

I am writing to inform you that on November 12, 2024, the John Glenn College of Public Affairs Graduate Curriculum Committee voted to add PUBAFRS 7600 Federal Policy & Administration as an elective option for its Graduate Minor in Public Policy and Management and for its Public Policy Specialization in the Master of Public Administration and Leadership (MPAL) degree. Previously, the course had been only offered in-person in Washington, DC, for our MPA-DC students. We worked with OSO to create an online version of the course during Summer 2024, and the online version of the class is on the course schedule for Spring 2025.

I have enclosed the revised advising sheets.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Greenbaum, Professor
